Centrals Take Closely Played Game.

State Hospital Blanks Norwich Town-Middletown Beats Whalers Twice-New Bedford New England League Champions.

In one of the closest played games of the City league, the Centrals defeated Greeneville at Sachem park, 4 to 2, winning out in their half of the eighth after Greeneville had succeeded in tieing the score, 2 to 2, in the first half of that fining. Both pitchers, Simcox for the Centrals and McLaughlin for Greeneville, had the batters protty well tied up. Simmy especially doing great work in allowing only two men to reach first in the first six innings. The centrals' pitcher had good support, Murphy making a nice stop that cut off runs.

With equal support for McLaughlin the game looked good for extra innings, but in the eighth, after two were out, fielding errors by Brennan, McGrath and Brennan again gave the Centrals the winning runs. NEW BEDFORD WINS PENNANT. New England League Championship Decided by Saturday's Games.

Boston, Sept. 10.—New Bedford today won the New England championship for the season of 1910, Lynn being the runner-up, the Worcester champions of last year finishing third. Lowell fourth, Fall River fifth, Lawrence sixth, Haverhill seconds and Brockton last fourth, Fall River fifth, Lawrence sixth, Haverhili seventh and Brockton last. This is the first year since Jesse Burkett, the former big league star's slugger, managed the Worcester team, that he has falled to land first. The Lynn team came strong at the close of the season, nosing out Worcester for second place, while Lowell, under the guidance of Fred Tenney, until a few months ago one of the New York National players, climbed into the first division. Fall River, Lawrence, Haverhill and Brockton found the race much too hot and for the last half of the season dropped steadily behind the season dropped steadily behind

Two games between Worcester and Brockton, played at Brockton Sept. 7, were thrown out by the league officials because they were illegally transferred from Worcester.

Five Mile Record Broken.

The five mile run record was lowered at Travers Island N. Y. on Saturday by George V. Bonhag, who went the distance in 25 minutes 9 1-5 seconds, 14 2-5 seconds faster than Eddie Carter's mark of 25 minutes 23 2-5 seconds, which had not even been danger-ously approached since 1887. Barring the first mile, Bonhag was forced to make the pace for himself, guided by a timer at every las.
